

HORSES HEALING HEARTS

Professional Development Team Building

Professional Development Programs with a unique approach to Leadership and Team Development. HORSE teachers! (There is no riding our teachers; they are with us to provide answers and honest feedback.) Our objectively driven programs build trust, collaboration and communication in a fun and engaging atmosphere NOT a competitive atmospheres like many other team building options! Participants develop individual and team based skills, impacting both their personal and professional lives. We work closely with you to ensure each experience is specifically tailored to address your company's particular objectives and goals.

GET YOUR TEAM OUT OF THE OFFICE AND BUILD THE SKILLS NEEDED FOR SUCCESS!

Our team building programs gives team members tools and strategies to work together effectively, make better decisions and resolve business issues. Helping teams to move through the blockages improving communication, knowledge, loyalty, productivity and ultimately, your bottom line.

Working with horses produces a distinctive training experience that provides the results your company needs. Your organization will see results immediately. This experience creates a unique memory that causes the participants to remember the training far longer than if sitting in 'just another classroom.'
